If you do not wish your child to accompany his or her class on these trips, please contact us and we will arrange alternate supervision.

BWCS teachers are planning field trips for their classes within the Big White community. Students will participate in various educational and physical activities while away from the school. Students will be accompanied by their classroom teacher and parent chaperones (when necessary). A schedule of activities will be left at the school office should you need to contact the group during the trip. Please ensure your child has clothing to be outdoors in various weather conditions, has good walking footwear (no flip flops) and a reusable water bottle labelled with his/her name for the remainder of the school year.

I give _____ (name of student) permission to participate in activities and trips planned for the duration of the 2026-2027 school year. I understand that my child may be exposed to certain risks while participating in activities. Accidents and injuries may occur.
